

Admissions 2017-18

Open House at kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi on 1st June 2017

Kamala Nehru College organised the OPEN HOUSE for admissions on 1st June 2017. During this admissions season, KNC was the first college at South campus to have hosted this for taking up the queries of the students and their wards regarding the admission procedure and their preparations towards it. The resource persons for the day were Dr Amrita Bajaj, Deputy Dean-Students Welfare of University of Delhi and Dr ShaliniBaxi, Deputy Dean-Cultural Council of University of Delhi. Dr Bajaj made an elaborate presentation regarding rules and regulations of the university admission procedure and took up queries related to the different colleges and courses. Dr Baxi updated the house about the Extra Curricular life in Delhi University Colleges and gave clarity regarding the procedure of selection through the ECA in the courses of the choice. The Principal of KNC, Dr KalpanaBhakuni initiated the Q/A session and as the head of the institute shared the procedural points related to admission, the college life and explained in detail how the students were to opt for courses with meticulous thinking and proper planning. Dr RenuMalhotra, Dr JyotiDhavan, the Admission Committee Convenors along with Ms Vinita Mallik, Convener-ECA Admissions interacted with students on one to one basis to counsel the students. The anchoring was done by Dr Geetesh Nirban (Media Coordinator). The college displayed all the important points related to admission process on the display boards. Over 170 students and wards benefited from this interaction. The Open House was well attended by the journalists from the print media.

