

Report 2012 - 13

The department of Philosophy organised the annual Philosophy Day Eidos on the 24th of February 2012 in commemoration of the 150th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. A biographical film on Swami Vivekananda was screened in collaboration with Ramakrishna Mission, New Delhi . Interface between scholars and the students was arranged wherein Prof. Amiya P. Sen(Centre for History and Cultural Studies, Jamia Milia Islamia University) addressed the students on ‘ Religion and the Human Revolution: Reflections on the Ramakrishan Vivekananada Movement' and Pr. Bhavaprana (Ramakrishna Sharada Mission) spoke on ‘ Women Empowerment: Some Reflections on Swami Ramakrishna and Swami Vivekananda'. Later in the day, informal events like Picture Speak (See the picture and speak your mind), In-focus(Theme Photography), Treasure Out of Trash (Making something out of the trash) were held. Students from various departments of Kamala Nehru College as well as other south campus colleges participated in all the three events.

On 5th of September, Radhakrishnan Memorial Lecture was organised wherein Professor Nirmalaya Narain Chakraborty (Member Secretary, Indian Council Of Philosophical Research, MHRD) addressed the students on ‘Value of Philosophy in Society'. Since the last two years, under the able guidance and initiative of Ms. Geetesh Nirban, the department of Philosophy has been taking the initiative to celebrate 5th September in its true spirit by remembering Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan and making the students learn about the greatness of this intellectual associated with Teachers' Day.