

Report (2017)

During the year 2017, the department of Philosophy organized four academically stimulating events. The first academic event of the year was a National Interdisciplinary Seminar on the theme 'Women in Indian Knowledge Tradition: Philosophy, Spirituality, Nature and Culture' organized on February 8-10, 2017. The three days seminar was sponsored by Indian Council of Philosophical Research. Dr. Kalpana Bhakuni (Principal, Kamala Nehru College) was the patron, Dr. Balaganapathi Devarkonda (Professor, Department of Philosophy, Delhi University) and Dr. Pragati Sahani (Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy, Delhi University) were the academic advisors and the convener of the seminar was Dr. Geetesh Nirban (Assistant Professor, Kamala Nehru College)

The second academic event was the Annual Philosophy Day Eidos on 7th April 2017. The speakers and the topic of addresses were: Dr. Manidipa Sen (Centre for Philosophy, School of Social Sciences, JNU), 'Extended Mind Hypothesis: Some Ontological and Ethical Implications' and Dr. Navneet Chopra (Department of Philosophy, University of Delhi), 'Structure and Dynamics of Social Cognition: In Cognitive Sciences, Phenomenology, Dynamic Systems, Embodiment and Artificial Intelligence.'

The third event was an interactive class lecture by Prof. Ranjan Ghosh (Former Director, ICPR) on 12th April 2017. The theme of the address was 'Art Experience and its Relation with Culture and Morality'.

The fourth academic activity was the Annual Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan Memorial Lecture on 6th September 2017 wherein Dr. Aakash Singh Rathore (Visiting Professor, Centre for Philosophy, Jawaharlal Nehru University and Director, International Research Network for Religion and Democracy) delivered a lecture on 'Ethics of Critical Thinking.'