

1.	E-Baithak	25 th August, 2021	The e-baithak was held on the topic “Climate change policies: Global vs Local”. The webinar was held online on Zoom and Mr. Sanjay Gupta, International Development Expert, Centre for CIVIL Society was the speaker. He spoke about the link of industrialisation with climate change and the steps which can be taken to reduce emissions. The event witnessed 78 participation.
2.	Plural Economics Lecture Webinar	6 th September, 2021	The webinar was held online on the Zoom platform and was open to all students of Kamala Nehru College. Mr. Sandeep Dikshit, Senior Editor, The Tribune was the guest speaker. The topic of the webinar was “Recent Developments in Afghanistan”. He gave detailed insights into the events taking place in Afghanistan, the history, geopolitics and expected changes due to the Taliban takeover. The event witnessed 84 participation.
3.	Annual Department Elections	15 th September, 2021	The department held its election for the academic year 2021-22 . 45+ students contested in elections for various posts in the department. Students of Second and Third year were allotted various posts according to the votes and the new council took over.

4.	Fresher's Orientation	29 th November, 2021	The department conducted Fresher's Orientation which was compulsory for all the First-year students of Economics department. We witnessed 74 participants who were excited to start this new journey.
5.	Plural Economics Lecture Webinar	14 th December, 2021	The Department organised a webinar on " India's Middle Class: How many are they? " in collaboration with Meghnad Desai Academy of Economics . The webinar reflected upon the role of the Indian middle class in driving consumer demand. It also provided insights for policy makers and industrialists who wish to tap the Indian consumer market. Sandhya Krishnan was our speaker for the session who's an Assistant Professor at the Meghnad Desai Academy of Economics, Mumbai. She holds a PhD from the University of Amsterdam and a Master's in Economics from the University of Mumbai. She works in the areas of applied econometrics and development economics. . The event witnessed 87 participation.

6.	Webinar on “Career Path for Higher Education in overseas”	25 th January, 2022	Organised a webinar on “ Career Path for Higher Education in Overseas ” in collaboration with AECC Global, a leading overseas education consultancy. The speakers for the session were Ms. Magret Robert , a QEAC certified counsellor with an 8+ years of experience in the similar industry. Along with her, we had Mr. Avadesh Kumar Singh , business development manager at AECC Global. . The event witnessed 117 participation.
7.	Fresher’s Debate	31 st January,2022	Department of Economics, Kamala Nehru College conducted the annual “ Fresher’s Debate ”. Following the theme of “ Can Privatisation lead to Sustainable Development ”, the Department witnessed an enormous participation.
8.	Young Economists Lecture	16 th February, 2022	Following the past trends of the Pre-Pandemic era , we re-introduced YELD Lecture Series.

			Young Economists Lecture Series was conducted on the topic “India’s Path to Prosperity in 2047” headed by Dr. Suboth Mathur, an Economist (PhD from MIT) with decades of practical experience in Asia and Africa. . The event witnessed 105 participation.
09.	Ecophoria- Annual Day	12 th April, 2022	The Economics Department of Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi held its annual fest “Ecophoria’22”. The inaugural ceremony was hosted by Janhvi Kathuria (President, Economics Society) and Mihika Dutta (Head of Operations, Economics Society) in the New Seminar Room. Over a hundred students participated. Following the ceremonious lighting of the lamp, the college principal, Dr. Kalpana Bhakuni welcomed the Guest Speaker for the inaugural lecture of the fest, Mr. Gaurav Jha, an officer of the Indian Economic Service. Mr. Jha delivered a lecture on the topic “Introduction to Policy making in India: an insider account”. . The event witnessed 78 participation.

--	--	--	-----------------------------------