

Activities 2017

Sangeetika also participated in a number of Inter-College singing competitions between January-April, 2017 and brought laurels for the college in both group and solo category. The choir stood first at Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Management Studies, Shaheed Sukhdev College of Business Studies and second at Ram Lal Anand College, Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women. Ms. Shruti Mishra secured first position at Deen Dayal Upadhyaya College, Institute of Information Technology and Management, second position at Hindu College, Keshav Mahavidyalaya and third prize at Daulat Ram College, Deshbandhu College and Ashoka University in solo category.

The Orientation Day, 20th July, 2017 for the first year students began with an invocation by the choir of Sangeetika. On the eve of Independence Day, 14th August 2017 and 75th anniversary of Quit India Movement, 17th August, 2017, the choir presented a string of popular patriotic songs amidst the students and staff of the College. Sangeetika was also invited for an interview by Red FM 93.5 on 23rd August. They also sang few classical compositions for the listeners.

The Intra-College Singing Competition, an annual feature of the Society was held on 20th September encompassing Classical, Light, Folk and Patriotic song categories. The participation of the students was over whelming.

At IIT-Delhi festival Rendezvous'17, 16th October, 2017 and IIT- Kanpur festival Antarangni'17, 29th October, 2017, Sangeetika secured third prize in the group classical music competition. Shruti Gupta also secured first position in the pair on the stage event at Kanpur. Sangeetika also presented invocation at Charkha Utsav on 27th October, 2017.