

Activities 2018

Since its inception, 16 years ago, Lakshya - The Theatre Society of Kamala Nehru College has been making thought provoking plays. The annual street production of 2018 - 2019, 'Kar-Rage', talks about how we mindlessly step into Rage, the accelerated form of anger and cause suffering to self more than others. Lakshya, performed 'Kar-Rage' at the Nukkad Natak competition organised by ICC of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College and secured the first position. Lakshya also performed 'Firki' a play on fake advertising at Consumidor, the Annual Fest of Consumer Club - Kamala Nehru College and secured the second position.

The Annual Stage Play Production 2018 - 2019 'Patjhad' is an adaptation of Saadat Hassan Manto's 'Kabootari' and the play in a very simple yet strong way talks about the issue of Stalking, which in today's age is very necessary to talk about. The team has been performing in various colleges across Delhi and has also been making public performances. The aim is to reach out to maximum number of people and deliver the message.
