

Lakshya made an annual production called "AIIN". The play talks about the unwritten yet obvious limitations to the right to express ourselves and leakages at various levels in the country. The play was performed at various events and colleges.

The team also performed at National School of Drama(NSD).

Lakshya also made and performed a play 'Firki' on Fake Advertising, organised by 'Awaken' -

The Consumer Club and secured the 2nd position in that event.

Lakshya also made a stage production called 'Convolutd', a psychological thriller. Convolutd was performed at several different stages. The team also won for its stage production

"Convolutd" at Jashn-e- theatre , Lakshya secured third position in that competition, hosted by Stageplayers - Deshbandhu Dramatics Society.