Student Convener- AnkitaChandan

Crossfire has had a busy and energizing year. We organized a fresher's training workshop at the end of Sept 2010 to help new members get accustomed to different debating styles. Members took part in many debates and group discussions through the year. This year we also participated in Model United Nation meets and had great success.

PriyankaRajan won the 2nd position at the Commerce Fest at Kamala Nehru College in October 2011. Mehak Mittal bagged the 1st position in the Group Discussion at Ecophoria 2010 at Kamala Nehru while ShinaGulati also chaired the Model United Nations during Ecophoria.

SupriyaShukla had a very successful year, winning many laurels for Crossfire. She won the 2nd position at the St. Stephen's Declamation in December 2010, and the 1st position at the Kamala Nehru Commerce Department Group Discussion. She also won the Group Discussion competitions at Gargi College and Sri Venketeswara College.

At the Kamala Nehru Psychology Fest, ShatarupaChakraborty won Best Speaker. She was also adjudged the Third Best Individual Speaker at the Kamala Nehru Annual Fest 2010, along with being judged the best Interjector during Indraprastha College Commerce Fest 2010.

Apart from these, RadhikaChaturvedi won 2nd prize at the Kirori Mal College annual debate in Dec 2010 and Radhika and Shatrupa were declared the best team at Kamala Nehru annual debate during Ullas 2010.

In September 2011, the new academic session started auspiciously for Crossfire, with Raveesha Gupta and ShreyaDeora being declared the second best team at the prestigious and fiercely competitive JIMS annual debate.

Our freshers also won accolades; Ankur Dang and Dhanya also won the best team at College of Business Studies freshers' debate in September 2011.
