Enigma, the western dance society of Kamala Nehru college is the only self-choreographed western dance team in Delhi University. They are a group of extremely talented and hard-working girls with a strong passion for dance. Enigma consists of individuals from different forms of dance and levels of training, as well as untrained but highly gifted dancers. The team performs on a wide range of genres ranging from jazz, bollywood, classical, folk and fusion.

In 2010-2011, Enigma took part in various inter-college competitions and received immense recognition and praise. It received the second position in the annual festival of Faculty of Law, was selected for Channel V's India Fest and HT City Youth Nexus. The team also took part in dance competitions of well-known colleges like Lady Sri Ram College for Women and Gargi College to name a few.
