Faculty Convener: Ms. Sushma Chaudhary

Student Convener: Devosmita Pal

The Indian Dance Society- NUPUR started its 2012-2013 session with rounds of audition in the month of August. Nupur consists of a folk team and 3-4 versatile solo classical dancers. The society has been very active throughout the year organizing and participating in various functions of its college. The society members actively participated in a Dance Drama Chitrangada organized by Kamala Nehru College. The program was highly appreciated by the Vice Chancellor of Delhi University. The drama was performed on three different stages, that of KNC itself, the North Campus and at the India International Centre.

Nupur has always been supported by the college and has been appreciated for its work. The team has had notable achievements within University and in other colleges. The Folk group bagged the first prize in Maitreyi College, Kamala Nehru College and Amity University, the second prize in St. Stephen's College, SGTB Khalsa College and the third prize at Delhi University cultural fest, Antardhwani.

The folk dance team was also especially invited to Vasant Valley Public School for an Indian Folk Workshop. The solo dancers of Nupur also bagged many prizes in competitions held in different Delhi University colleges like LSR, Stephens, KNC, Miranda.

During our college festival 'ULLAS', Nupur organized 'Nrityamanjari' the inter college solo and group competitions. This event got a number of colleges from Delhi to participate in the competition and saw a variety of dances in both solo and group competitions. It was also able to have a large audience from within the college and outside. It turned out to be a very successful event and was able to bring a lot of appreciation to the college.
