

Report 17th Dr K. K. Gorowara Annual Public Lecture 2021

Kamala Nehru College was established on July 20th, 1964. It was then known as the 'Government College for Women'. With the relentless efforts of Dr Gorowara, our founder principal, this college reached new echelons of accomplishment in later years. In the honour of our respected founder Principal, Late Dr K.K. Gorowara, we hold Dr Gorowara Memorial Annual Public Lecture Series. Each year we invite eminent persons from various fields who have made a difference to our society by their unique body of work. Our purpose is to provide a forum where dignitaries could share their knowledge with students, sensitizing them towards the challenges of our present society, and their role as conscious citizens.

The 17th Dr K. K. Gorowara Annual Public Lecture 2021 was held on April 15th 2021 at 11am, in the online mode due to the Covid 19 times. The platform used for the same was Zoom. The program was livestreamed on YouTube simultaneously. The Speaker was Dr V. S. Priya, the first Transgender Doctor from Kerala. The topic of the day was - Declassifying my Life: Journey from Jinu to Priya.

The lecture was followed by the K. K. Gorowara Awards to the meritorious students of the college, plus other sponsored prizes. On the occasion of the public lecture, three meritorious students are given Dr K. K. Gorowara Memorial Awards, announced immediately after the lecture.

About Dr V. S. Priya.

Dr Priya, an Ayurvedic Doctor by Profession, hails from Thrissur district, Kerala. She promisingly works as a Consultant Ayurvedic Physician in Sitaram Ayurveda Speciality Hospital, in Thrissur. After successfully securing her undergraduate degree in BAMS from Vaidyaratnam Ayurveda Medical College, Thrissur, University of Calicut, she started her internship in 2009. She went ahead for her Post-Graduation from KVG Ayurveda Medical College, Karnataka, under Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences. This kick-started her Professional Career as an Ayurvedic Medical Practitioner in 2012. She has also worked as a guest lecturer in various Government colleges in Kerala ever since.

Dr Priya is a Transwoman by her Gender identity and is regarded as the first Doctor from Trans Community in the State of Kerala and perhaps the whole nation, considering that she is a doctor since 2009. She says, “I am really happy to find myself. Actually, I am celebrating womanhood. I have successfully overcome the physical and mental disparity within myself.”

The session was open for Question answers after the lecture by activating the chat box.
