

Report: 18th Dr. K.K. Gorowara Memorial Annual Public Lecture

Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi | 9th April 2025

Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi hosted the 18th Dr. K.K. Gorowara Memorial Annual Public Lecture on 9th April 2025 at the College Auditorium. The lecture centred on the thought-provoking theme, Artificial Intelligence: Is it a Threat to Creative Intellect? The event drew an enthusiastic gathering of faculty members, scholars, and students. The teacher conveners for the event were Dr. Nupur Ray and Dr. Vaishali Narula.

Prof. (Dr.) Pavitra Bhardwaj, Principal of Kamala Nehru College, commenced the programme with a warm and thoughtful welcome address. She warmly set the tone for the morning by emphasizing the importance of the Dr. K.K. Gorowara Memorial Lecture Series and the college's continued dedication to encouraging thoughtful conversations around culture, technology, and the arts. With genuine admiration, she introduced the distinguished speaker, acknowledging his valuable contributions to literature, theatre, and the preservation of culture.

Dr. Sachchidanand Joshi, eminent writer, theatre artist, and Member Secretary at the Indira Gandhi National Centre for Arts, Ministry of Culture, Government of India, then delivered an engaging and deeply insightful lecture that held the audience in rapt attention throughout. His address, rich in scholarly depth and personal experience, drew widespread appreciation from all those in attendance, leaving a lasting impression on the gathering.

An interactive Question and Answer session followed, during which participants enthusiastically engaged with Dr. Joshi. The session was lively and intellectually stimulating, with questions spanning a broad range of topics related to his address. Dr. Joshi responded to each query with clarity, warmth, and considerable depth of knowledge.

The lecture was followed by a prize distribution ceremony that added a celebratory note to the occasion. Students of Kamala Nehru College were recognised and felicitated for their outstanding contributions in both academic and co-curricular spheres, making it a proud and joyful moment for the entire college community.

The event concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks, expressing heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Joshi for sharing his wisdom and time. Appreciation was also extended to Prof. (Dr.) Pavitra Bhardwaj for her gracious welcome, and to the conveners and all attendees whose enthusiastic participation made this memorial lecture a truly memorable and enriching occasion.
